Redeemer Preschool & Kindergarten
Publication Release Form

From time to time, Redeemer Preschool & Kindergarten wishes to place photographic images of our events and activities during the school year on our school website and also in official printed or electronic publications for the school. The photographs used on the school website will be group shots of three or more children participating in school activities and may contain images of your child and you (individual pictures of students will not be used on the website). In order to do so, we must have written permission from you for your child and/or yourself before we can publish such items. Please fill out this form below completely (the top for your child and the bottom for you) if you wish to grant the school such permission to utilize your images as described above.

Consent Form for Student

I hereby grant permission to Redeemer Preschool & Kindergarten to use photographs of my child on its website or in other official school printed publications without further consideration. It is my understanding that the photographs used on the school website will be group shots of at least three or more children participating in school activities of which my child may be a part of.

I also understand that once photos are posted on the school's website, images can be downloaded by any computer user accessing the website. Therefore, I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the school and any photographer whose services are used by the school whether paid or unpaid from any and all claims.
